Cultural Tapestry

An event titled "Remembering Legendary Singer Zubeen Garg" was organised by the Swami Vivekananda Cultural Centre (SVCC) on 19 October 2025. The evening featured soulful performances of some of Zubeen Garg's most beloved songs by Thanura Madugeeth, Adithya Prabhavée, Rowen Earl Peiris, Chanupa Deshitha, and Dulmin Wickramasinghe, under the musical guidance of Sahashtapathi Asith Attapattu. A special highlight of the event was the Sinhala rendition of the Assamese classic "Mayabini Ratir Bukut", translated by Prof. Upul Ranjith Hewavitanagamage, reflecting the deep cultural connection between Sri Lanka and India through music and artistic expression.

A mesmerizing evening at the Swami Vivekananda Cultural Centre, Colombo, on 24th October, featuring "Chilambu – Echoes of Malabar Folklore in the Classical Rhythm of Bharatanatyam" by Smt. Haritha Thamban, an acclaimed artist from Kerala. Her captivating presentation beautifully wove the mysticism of Malabar's folklore with the grace of classical dance.
