Cultural Tapestry

An evening where tradition met grace, rhythm met devotion, and every movement told a story... "Natyā Valbhavam" was not just a performance—it was a celebration of culture, passion, and the timeless beauty of classical dance. Under the brilliant choreography and direction of Smt. Vasugy Jegatheeswaran, the stage came alive with elegance, energy, and artistic excellence. Proudly supported by the High Commission of India, Colombo, this beautiful initiative further strengthened the cultural bond between nations through the universal language of art. From the intricate expressions to the powerful footwork, every moment reflected dedication, discipline, and love for the art. Here are some glimpses from this unforgettable evening.

Rukshika Elankumaran, a disciple of Priyadarsini Govind, presented a graceful Bharatanatyam recital on 8th April at the centre as part of International Dance Day celebrations. Her performance beautifully showcased the elegance and expressive depth of Bharatanatyam, captivating the audience and making the evening memorable.

As part of the International Day of Dance celebrations, Samyoga—an enchanting evening of dance—was presented by the talented students of the Abhinayashetra School of Dance. It was truly a memorable evening, celebrating the universal language of dance and the spirit of artistic unity.
